This resort town is a perfect place to bring your loved ones for a vacation. It boasts a selection of scenic heights, ample stargazing, a luxurious spa, and swimming-- even weary competitors might spend a long weekend here!

History

Nestled behind the foothills of Mt. Mei, Dragon's Post is a cozy resort town beloved by Crossroad's wealthy community. Those who live here year-round are farmers, as well as engineers running the city's electricity-generating windmills. For visitors, however, this lakeside town is a dream vacation. The sky is clear, there are boats for rent, and the waters of the lake are always a comfortable swimming temperature!
