

Dee

The first time we see each other in so long, and you're annoyed with me?

-- Dee

Dee (short for Deandra) is a supporting character from the personal project Spellbroom, a mysterious woman who claims to be just an adventurer, but in actuality is a witch. In Summer Leagues, Dee takes the role of a sponsor, passing her invitation as a returning champion on to Marta.

Backstory

Before Summer Leagues:

At some point, Dee had won a tournament in the Crossroads, earning a wish and becoming a champion. While adventuring around the world to sate her boredom, Dee had met Marta and grew fond of the child, constantly testing her during their encounters to see if she was ready for whatever was beyond her.

During Summer Leagues:

Having been sent an invitation to return to the Crossroads as a returning champion, Dee decided to pass her invitation on to Marta, instead using the opportunity to take a vacation there while being her "sponsor".

Abilities

Ability 1

Dee is an Olympic level fencer, having won several gold medals in her years through skill alone. Having taken fencing lessons since she was young, her skills have been honed over the years and even won her a tournament in the Summer Leagues.

Ability 2

Like all magic users from her world, Deandra has higher than average stamina, able to keep her going longer than a normal human would be able to.

Ability 3

Dee is capable of magic but refuses to say yet what sort, as if finding amusement in letting people guess. However, she can occasionally be seen using her pipe and making it take the form of a rapier and a parasol.
